Evolve Careers

Certificate of Achievement

Vanessa Valentini

has completed the:

Digital Marketing Job Simulation

This certificate is given to recognize that the person finished the Digital Marketing Job Simulation in the EvolveCareers Accelerator product created in partnership with Bipolar Factory. This certificate shows that they gained hands-on experience in product research, content creation, and using Generative AI tools to boost creativity. They applied these skills to real-world scenarios, showing their readiness for fast-paced, tech-driven roles in the digital marketing industry.
