Certificate of Achievement

Vanessa Valentini

has completed the:

AI Literacy Skills Course

This certificate recognizes the completion of the AI Literacy Skills course in the EvolveCareers Accelerator product, designed in partnership with leading global employers, including EY and PwC. Through this module, the learner has developed a foundational understanding of the applications and implications of artificial intelligence (AI) in the workplace. They have explored how AI is transforming industries, reshaping job roles, and redefining the skills required to succeed in the modern workforce.
